

Job Announcement: Facility & Program Coordinator

Applicants should be passionate about transforming lives, building relationships with youth and parents and supporting community-led campaigns focused on improving schools.

Coleman Advocates for Children and Youth is a member-led, multi-racial, intergenerational community organization working to create a city of hope, justice, and opportunity for children and families in San Francisco. We organize poor and working class BIPOC (Black, Indigenous and people of color) youth and families – primarily Black, Latinx, and Pacific Islander – to build power in their schools, communities, and in their own lives.

Coleman Advocates is seeking an experienced administrator capable of handling multiple projects, managing communications with several teams to facilitate solutions to organization-wide issues, and supporting teams while maintaining flexibility. Our Facility & Program Coordinator will be solution oriented, have a keen eye for detail, and take initiative.

People and/or their family members with lived experience surviving the school to prison pipeline are strongly encouraged to apply.
